Journals

“GeoScienceWorld provides small research institutions like mine with cost-effective access to a world-class library of geoscience literature — much more than we could ever afford to subscribe to otherwise...I can't imagine a serious research program in the earth or environmental sciences being without GSW.”

Shaun Hardy, Librarian, Department of Terrestrial Magnetism, Carnegie institution of Washington

29 PUBLISHERS – 47 JOURNALS – 165,000 ARTICLES

Now with expanded backfiles from AAPG Bulletin and American Mineralogist. GeoArabia, years 1996-2015, will be added to the collection in January 2019

ONE SOURCE – GEOSCIENCE WORLD.ORG

A nonprofit collaborative established to aid in the dissemination of research, GSW Journals provides essential geoscience content, expertly curated, and seamlessly delivered from our newly redesigned GeoScienceWorld platform.

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

ONE SOURCE

47 journals, 29 publishers, and 165,000 articles on one platform, providing all the resources you need in one place.

BREADTH OF CONTENT

The GSW Millennium Collection (2000 forward) contains respected, peer-reviewed journals across the Earth sciences.

LIBRARY SPECIFIC FEATURES

Section 508 and W3C compliant; OpenURL compliant; COUNTER and SUSHI usage reporting; Cross Ref™ DOI.

FULLY RESPONSIVE WEBSITE

Easy reading on any device.

COMMUNITY SUPPORT

As a 501(c)(3), GSW works in collaboration with its partners in the geosciences to advance and support the interests and sustainability of non-profit societies and libraries.

CROSS SEARCHABLE

Fully integrated with GeoRef to provide the most complete and authoritative abstracting & indexing database in geoscience.

GROWING ARCHIVE

Freely available to subscribers, the GSW Archive Collection (1905-1999) continues to grow and provides lasting value. Now with expanded backfiles from AAPG Bulletin and American Mineralogist.

CUTTING EDGE TOOLS

The latest e-publishing techniques, partnerships, and technologies makes search easier.

FLEXIBLE SUBSCRIPTION OPTIONS

Save money with unlimited access or article pay-per-view.
